

Nicaraguan Government to Present at AAPG Conference With the Assistance of Infinity Energy Resources on June 8, 2009

PRESENTATION TO HIGHLIGHT POTENTIAL WORLD-CLASS HYDROCARBON PROVINCE OF CRETACEOUS FORMATION IN NICARAGUAN BASIN

OVERLAND PARK, Kansas, June 8 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Infinity Energy Resources, Inc. (Pink Sheets: IFNY) ("Infinity" or "the Company"), an independent oil and gas exploration and development company, today announced that the Company will provide technical support to a presentation by the Nicaraguan Government's Ministry of Energy and Mines at the American Association of Petroleum Geologists ("AAPG") Annual Convention and Exhibition, which is being held June 7-10, 2009, in Denver, Colorado.

The AAPG Conference will be held at the Colorado Convention Center. Approximately 40 countries and more than 7,000 geologists, geophysicists, engineers, landmen, and academicians will be represented at the Convention. The featured luncheon speaker will be T. Boone Pickens, who will discuss "The Future of Energy". The presentation by the Nicaraguan Government and Infinity is scheduled for 4:30 p.m. Mountain Daylight Time (MDT) on Monday, June 8, 2009 in the International Pavilion Theatre.

"We are pleased that the Nicaraguan Ministry of Energy and Mines has invited Infinity to assist in the presentation by describing our exploration and development contracts, technical knowledge, and plans to move forward immediately with environmental and geological work involving the Company's 1.4 million-acre oil and gas concession in the Caribbean Sea offshore Nicaragua," stated Stanton E. Ross, Chief Executive Officer of Infinity Energy Resources, Inc. "The Ministry of Energy and Mines presentation will be given by Veronica Artiles, Director of Petroleum Development, and Reyna Dania Baca, Head of the Department of Petroleum Exploration, who will review the world-class hydrocarbon potential that is believed to exist within the Cretaceous Formation in the Nicaraguan Basin, which has yet to be explored. Opportunities involving additional leasing activities within the Basin will also be reviewed in the presentation."
