

INFINITY ENERGY RESOURCES TO HOST GEOLOGIC UPDATE CONFERENCE CALL ON MONDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 2013

OVERLAND PARK, Kansas (November 14, 2013) – Infinity Energy Resources, Inc. (OTCQB: IFNY) (“Infinity” or the “Company”), an independent oil and gas exploration and development company, will host a geologic update conference call for members of the investment community at 11:45 a.m. Eastern Time (EST) on Monday, November 18, 2013.

Presenting on the call will be the Company’s CEO, Stanton Ross, and its primary geological consultant, Jeff Roberts.

The purpose of the conference call will be to update investors following the November 13th announcement by Noble Energy that it has elected to plug and abandon the initial exploratory well on its Tyra Bank concession offshore Nicaragua. This conference call will include a discussion by Mr. Roberts of the geological similarities and differences between Infinity’s 1.4 million-acre concessions offshore Nicaragua, and Noble Energy’s 1.8 million-acre concessions, which are east of, and adjacent to, Infinity’s concessions.

During most of his career, Mr. Roberts was involved in the evaluation of numerous hydrocarbon basins for Amoco Production Co. and Oryx Energy Co. He was Manager of Operational Planning for Oryx, where he was responsible for the preparation of corporate planning and budget functions for a $400 million worldwide exploration and production budget. He served as Exploration Manager for the Gulf of Mexico and Manager of Exploration and Production Technology for Oryx Energy. His domestic exploration experience has targeted basins in the Gulf of Mexico, the Rocky Mountains, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas and Canada. He was the first geologist to evaluate the unconventional potential of coalbed methane in the Black Warrior Basin for Amoco and is an expert in the evaluation of fractured reservoirs, horizontal exploration prospects, basin tectonic analysis, and economic exploration analysis. Mr. Roberts is a founding Member of The Unconventionals, an exploration group focused on unconventional hydrocarbon opportunities.

Details for accessing the conference call are provided below.
