About Singular Research

Singular Research aims to be the most trusted supplier of unbiased, performance-based research on small- and micro-cap companies to fund managers. Its goal is to provide initiation reports and quarterly updates for approximately 40 companies. In most cases, Singular’s analysts research companies that are not covered by any other firms.

The First Annual Singular Research Solstice Conference will be co-hosted by the NYSE/MKT and is dedicated to emerging growth and underfollowed companies. The NYSE has joined forces with Singular Research to develop a conference dedicated to informing the investment community about undercovered/undiscovered companies listed or seeking a listing on its exchange or other major exchanges.

Singular expects the conference to be attended by many of the nation’s top institutional and hedge fund managers, family offices and wealth managers with a specific interest in small-cap companies. Singular clients include prominent five star-rated small and micro-cap portfolio managers representing over $70 billion in assets.
